

Acton Nature Center Community Lecture Series

Keeping Rural Texas from Disappearing

Sunday, January 4, 2026 2pm

Opal Durant Acton Community Center - 6430 Smoky Hill Ct., Granbury, TX

“If we don't do something our beloved state will lose what it's known for - the wide open spaces. Texas has always been known for cowboys, cattle, big ranches, and scenic views. What can Texans do to preserve this legacy? “

Guest Speaker: Kelly Langdon was born and raised in Hood County and has resided on Fall Creek Ranch his entire life. He graduated from Granbury High School and then attended Tarleton State University where he received his degree in Agribusiness with minors in economics and wildlife management. He is president of the Hood/Somervell Counties Farm Bureau, serves on the board of directors for the Texas Agricultural Land Trust, and is a board member of the Hood County Crimestoppers. He and his parents manage Fall Creek Ranch, a working cattle ranch and wildlife preserve. He also runs a wedding/event venue and bird/trophy whitetail hunting operation on the ranch.
